THE UNION BANNER

SALISBURY, N. C., AUGUST 26, 1865.

J. J. STEWART. EDITOR

FOR THE CONVENTION.

HON. NAT. BOYDEN,
HAM. C. JONES, JR.

Election 21st. September.

Qualifications for Voters.

The qualification for voters are that a paroled man of the Confederate army and navy, under and including the rank of Colonel, in the one and under and including the rank of Lieutenant in the other, shall be permitted to vote and all other citizens, provided they are not included in any of the fourteen excluded classes in the President's Amnesty Proclamation; also, that they exhibit to the Inspectors a copy of the Amnesty oath signed by himself, and certified to by at least two justices of the Peace, and furthermore that they be citizens, as required by the laws inforce preceading May 20th, 1861, except that the payment of a poll tax shall not be required.

Above will be found the names of two gentlemen whom we think eminently recommend themselves to the people of Rowan as their delegates to the coming Convention, by the records of their past life and the promise of their future. Of Mr. Boyden it is almost unnecessary to speak, suffice it for us to say, that he has been from first to last an uncompromising and unconditional Unionist; consistent in his course and unwavering in his principles.

Col. Ham. C. Jones, jr. it is also well known was a friend of the Union, and was opposed to the last, to Secession and War—but when North Carolina, by Convention assembled, declared, the Ordinance of Secession, [illegible] and thousands of others leaped to her support, and his sword soon flashed in the thickest of the contest. He proved his fidelity by his services, and has entitled himself by his courage and consistency to the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens. He has taken the oath of allegiance in good faith and with the same fidelity as he followed the banner of the South, so will he now follow the banner of the Union. He is one of those gentlemen whose every action is guided by principle, and in whom the authorities can have every confidence. He belongs to that class that can never swerve from the fealty or allegiance promised or due. The people have in him a man of talent, a man of character and a man of broad conservative views and we earnestly hope that he will be elected. Fully alive and having at heart the interests of North Carolina he will devote himself to those interests and do all in his power to settle the questions of a vexed and unsettled character. We hope everybody who has the interests of the Old North State at heart, will come to the support of our ticket, as we believe it to be the one best adapted to our present condition.

We have received the following letter from Col. Jones:

SALISBURY, Aug. 26, '65.

EDITOR BANNER:

SIR:—At the earnest solicitation of many of my fellow-citizens, I have determined to become a candidate for the approaching State Convention. My past life has been identified with the people of this county. If they find in that past sufficient guarantee for future fidelity then I respectfully solicit their support. But in any event, shall cheerfully acquiesce in their decision.

Very Respectfully,
HAM. C. JONES, JR.

The Coming Election.

It is highly important that every one should qualify themselves and vote according to the directions for qualification of voters, which will be found at the head of our Editorial column. Both Nat. Boyden and Ham. C. Jones, jr., are our choice.

To all Voters.

Recollect that to vote, you must exhibit to the Inspectors of election, a copy of the amnesty oath signed by yourself and certified to by at least two justices of the peace. The oath taken before Provost Marshalls will not do.

Good Advice.

We gave Saturday one extract from the National Intelligencer, to day we give another:

To prove the exact state of the Southern temper to the satisfaction of the country is difficult. Therefore, the great importance of Southern political acts. No doubt, in the South there are attempts at oligarchy. Ambitious and unprincipled men, no doubt, would like to flatter the President by denunciations of the South, and by praises of themselves, and so far get into his favor as to receive all of his patronage in that quarter, and so to hold his ear perpetually and perfidiously, while others find it an easy way to be elected by a ballot (necessarily and properly) crippled by unusual law; and such is the infirmity of human nature, it is not improbable that all men of this kidney desires Southern probation" to be as long as their selfish ambition may covet power and distinction and money.

And men like these will misrepresent the South, will do injustice to its loyalty; will seek to corrupt to their selfish uses all the public channels of information. But, if they are liars, their foundations rest on the sand their race will be short. If disposed towards loyalty—as we firmly believe that the South now are—they must expect these things; they must remember that they have brought them all on themselves; therefore, they must be circumspect in every act, so as to give no color to the arts of these men they must be patient—[illegible] and Southern provoked into violence by traps set to catch them; they must be self sacrificing, even like Him who when reviled reviled not again. Above all, if their intentions are good, they must not despond but cheerily and courageously they must bear the thorns of punishment, though they bleed; remembering always that the President of the land is the President and father of the whole people, and that he is not the head of a merciless and barbarous party bent on Southern humiliation and destruction. We believe him to be an able, sound-headed, patient, patriotic, humane, firm, cautious, and candid man, whose heart's desire it is to crown his administration with the Union of these States—a reward higher and brighter than any other within mortal power to confer; and he is shrewd enough to see through tricksters when their game is clearly before him, if it shall be exposed as a foul game by the undeviating loyally of the South; and, furthermore, let the South be assured, if they are patient and true, that behind the President there is a Northern sentiment even stronger than her myriad of resistless armies, and which is, that our Union of consent and equality shall be stored on the basis of universal freedom and of one overruling sovereign of nationality. Let the South instantly accept, and everywhere declare, and politically act upon this platform, and our glorious Union is alive again in all its original spirit. Then those foul birds called demagogues will flee, for a time at any rate, from before the face of a reawakened and united nation, and we shall indeed be one people. All our hopes rest with you. Men of the South—in your patriotism, patience, self-denial and sagacity.

For the Convention.

The following gentlemen are named as candidates for seats in the State Convention, election to take place the 21st of September next:

Gen. G. W. Logan and Col. L. Harris have been nominated for the Convention in Rutherford and Polk Counties.

Col. John P. Cobb, Capt. [illegible] Faircloth, Capt. J. B. Whitaker, and Lieut. James H. Everitt, have been spoken of as candidates for the Convention from Wayne county, the three last named gentlemen we believe have regularly announced themselves.

In Lincoln county, John Phifer, Wallace Alexander and W. P. Bynum, are candidates for the State Convention.

In Gaston county, Dr. Wm. Sloan is a candidate.

In Mecklenburg Alexander McIver and J. Harvey Wilson are announced as candidates.

In Yadkin, Judge Pearson is a candidate without opposition.

In Surry, H. P. Waugh.

In Caldwell, Rufus L. Patterson.

In Wilkes, C. J. Cowles, and P. Horton.

In Forsyth, I. G. Lash and J. H. Starbuck.

In Moore, A. R. McDonald and Bryan Tyson.

In Chatham, John McDonald and Rev. N. P. Taylor.

In Iredell, Col. Thomas A. Allison, L. Q. Sharpe.

Rowan, Hon. Nat Boyden, Ham. C. Jones, jr. Dr. Ramsey M. L. Holmes and Paul A. Seafford.

Major Mosby in Alexandria—He is Lionized by the Secesh—He is Arrested—He is Released.

We last night noticed the fact that Major Mosby was in the city, and his presence was much courted by his friends and admirers. An hour after his arrival there was hardly a sympathizer with the late confederacy here who did not know of his presence. Wherever he went he was followed by a large crowd of friends.

He seemed to make Harper's store his headquarters, and wherever "stationed" were large crowds, composed of a plentiful sprinkle of colored men and boys, gathered on the corner and blockaded the sidewalk, some times almost obstructing the streets. This became so annoying that about, 4 o'clock, p. m., last evening, the military authorities ordered his arrest. He was arrested by Captain McGraw at the residence of Mrs. Boyd Smith, on St. Asaph street, and taken before Generol Wells, who held him until he communicated with headquarters at Washington and received orders for his release.

During one of his "levees" at the corner of King and Royal Streets, a colored man in the crowd spoke of him in somewhat harsh language, whereupon a Jew standing near slapped him and told him to hush, "as Mosby was a gentleman." The Jew was arrested and taken before Captain Fisher, Provost Judge of the Freedmen's Bureau, who sent him to the Slave Pen for twenty-four hours.

A short description of this notorious guerilla chief will perhaps not be uninteresting to our readers. He is about five feet eight or nine inches in height, rawboned and rather delicate build. We suppose his weight to be about 120 pounds and his age between thirty and thirty-five years. His temperament is of the sanguine billious, eyes blue and hair of a dark aburn color. He wears neither whiskers nor mustache. He wore yesterday pants of army blue cloth, a dark colored soft hat. So Much for Mosby. —Virginia State Journal, Alexandria, 10th.

THE N. C. RAILROAD.—The Greensborough Patriot says that at the late meeting of the stockholders of the N. C. Railroad Company, the question of having a National Banck connected with the Road was agitated. Among others who participated in the discussion were the Hon. N. Boyden in favor of and Gov. Morehead against the project. After the discussion was over, the stockholders directed that application be made to the Convention of the Legislature for an amendment to the Charter of the Company, permiting them to establish a National Bank in connection with the business of the Road, in accordance with the financial Banking scheme of the U. S. Government. The opposition to this project arose mainly from the belief that the Road would not have the funds to spare at any early day to establish such a Bank.

We have seen no statistics giving information of the present financial condition of the Company, but learn verbally that the Road has paid its current expenses up to the first of May, 1865, and that it has a large claim against the U. S. Government for services in the transportation of troops and all manner of army stores, &c. We would infer from this that it is in a safe condition, financially. Not only the individual stockholders, but the whole State, have a deep pecuniary interest in the success of this Road.

Two young carpenters, named respectively Robert Brown and Thomas Jones, were very fond of dropping into Mr. Smith's parlor, and spending an hour or two with his only daughter, Mary. One evening when Brown and Mary had discussed almost every topic, Brown suddenly, in his sweetest tones, struck out as follows: "Do you think, Mary, you could leave father and mother, this pleasant home, with all its ease and comforts, and emigrate to the Far West with a young carpenter, who has little besides his strong hands to depend upon, and with him search out a new home, which it should be your joint duty to beautify, and make delightful and happy like this?" Dropping her head, she whispered, "I think I could, Robert."—"Well," said he, "there's Tom Jones, who's going to emigrate, and wants to get a wife, I'll mention it to him."

Commissioners vs Micajah Brown of Wilkes County.

This was a Warrant founded upon complaint made that the defendant had sold two quarts of Brandy out of his wagon in the streets of the Town and in violation of Town Ordinance.

Louisa Pateet, sworn, I live in east ward. I bought two quarts of Brandy of Mr. Brown I bought it as a medicine, and told him I wanted it as such, I have been sick all Summer, have had the jaundice, have been under medical treatment by Dr. Henderson, who advised me to use bitters and I bought the liquor to make bitters. Do not sell liquor to any one. Do not keep it in the house.

Wm. Shaver sworn. I saw the defendant sell the liquor to Louisa Pateet, it was not sold out of the wagon in the street, but in McNeely & Young's ware house, he had his wagon at the door of the ware house. He said he was selling it to Mrs. Pateet as a medicine. Judgment for defendant and the case dismissed, and Micajah ordered to take his Brandy out of Town

Commissioners vs. Dr. Henry L. Coleman.—This was a case of shooting on the premises of the Doctor about 12 o'clock Tuesday night, the 22d inst. Wm W. Shaver sworn. I was on police duty that night, was at the Town Hall when I heard the report of the pistol. Myself and several other police ran in the direction of the firing and came upon Dr. Coleman in his yard with a light in his hand, enquired the cause of his shooting, as he had a pistol in his hand. He said some one had been trying to get into his smoke house, and had fired his pistol and was looking to see if he had hit any one.

Statement by the Doctor. My wife and self heard a noise about the smoke-house, in attempting to open the door to go out, I gave it a jirk and the pistol discharged accidentally.

Judgment for defendant.

Bishop Atkinson.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson, D. D., occupied the pulpit of St. Luke's Church on Sunday. He preached to the heart of his hearers words peculiarly adapted to the times.

The weather the past week has been as changeable as a woman's love. One day cold, the next day rain, the sun the next day and then the hail. It has illustrated the fickleness of the weather as well as the fickleness of woman.

The Justices shall, at the same time, appoint Inspectors of the elections at the various precincts in their respective counties, in accordance with the law in relation there to, Chapter 52, Revised Code of North Carolina. The election for members of the Convention shall be conducted in the same manner as elections for members of the House of Commons, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 52, Revised Code, so far as said provisions may be applicable; and the officers appointed to hold said elections, and to make returns thereof, shall be liable to the same penalties for failure to act, or for neglect of duty, as are prescribed in Chapter 52 Revised Code.

No person will be allowed to vote who is not a voter qualified as prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State, in force immediately before the 20th day of May, 1861; except that the payment of a poll tax shall not be required.

All paroled soldiers of the army and navy of the pretended Confederate States, or of this State, and all paroled officers of the army and navy of the pretended Confederate States, or of this State, under and including the rank of Colonel, if of the army, and under and including the rank of Lieutenant, if of the navy, will be allowed to vote, provided they are not included in any of the fourteen excluded classes of the President's Amnesty Proclamation; and, provided further, that they are citizens of the State in accordance with the terms prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

No person will be allowed to vote who does not exhibit to the inspectors a copy of the Amnesty Oath, as contained in the President's Proclamation of May 29, 1865, and signed by himself and certified by at least two Justices of the Peace.

Printed copies of the Amnesty Oath will be furnished to the Clerks, who will distribute them to the Justices appointed to administer the oath. The Justices will deliver the certified copy to the person taking the oath, and retain the original to be transmitted to this office. Justices of the peace are authorized to administer the Amnesty Ooath to persons who may desire to apply to the President for pardon.

The Sheriffs of the respective counties shall furnish, as soon as practicable, certificates of election to those persons who may have received the highest number of votes as members of the Convention; and the Sheriffs shall also immediately send to the office of the Secretary of State, Raleigh, a statement of the vote in their respective counties for the members aforesaid, and also a statement of the said vote, sealed up, directed to the President of the Convention, Raleigh, to be laid before the Convention.

The members of the Convention, thus chosen, will assemble in the city of Raleigh, on Monday, the second day of October, 1865.

The attention of Justices appointed to administer the Amnesty Ooath, is especially directed to the following fourteen excluded classes of the President's Amnesty Proclamation of May 29th, 1865:

"First—All who are, or shall have been pretended civil or diplomatic officers, or otherwise, domestic or foreign agents of the pretended Confederate government.

Second—All who left judicial stations under the United States to aid the rebellion.

Third—All who have been military or naval officers of said pretended Confederate government, above the rank of Colonel in the army or Lieutenant in the navy.

Fourth—All who left seats in the Congress of the United States to aid the rebellion.

Fifth—All who resigned or tendered resignations of their commissions in the army or navy of the United States to evade daty in resisting the rebellion.

Sixth—All who have engaged in any way in the treating otherwise than lawfully as prisoners of war persons found in the United States service, as officers, soldiers, seamen, or in other capacities.

Seventh—All persons who have been or are absentees from the United States for the purpose of aiding the rebellion.

Eighth—All military and naval officers in the rebel service who were educated by the government in the Military Academy at West Point, or the United States Naval Academy.

Ninth—All persons who held the pretended offices of Governors of States in insurrection against the United States.

Tenth—All persons who left their homes within the jurisdiction and protection of the United States and passed beyond the federal military lines into the so-called Confederate States for the purpose of aiding the rebellion.

Eleventh—All persons who have been engaged in the destruction of the commerce of the United States upon the high-seas, and persons who have made raids into the United States from Canada, or been engaged in destroying the commerce of the United States upon the lakes and rivers that separate the British provinces from the United States.

Twelfth—All persons who, at the time when they seek to obtain the benefits hereof by taking the oath herein prescribed, are in military, naval or civil confinement or custody, or under bonds of the civil, military or naval authorities or agents of the United States, as prisoners of war, or persons detained for offences of any kind either before or after conviction.

Thirteenth—All persons who have voluntarily participated in said rebellion, and the estimated value of whose taxable property is over twenty thousand dollars.

Fourteenth—All persons who have taken the oath of amnesty as prescribed in the President's proclamation of December eighth, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, or an oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States since the date of said proclamation, and who have not heretofore kept and maintained the same inviolate: Provided, That special application may be made to the president for pardon by any person belonging to the excepted classes, and such clemency will be liberally extended as may be consistent with the facts of the case and the peace and dignity of the United States.

Under the first exception are included all persons who have been civil or diplomatic officers or agents of the pretended Confederate government, either within or without the territorial limits of the United States.

Under the seventh exception are included all officers, agents or private citizens who have been absent from the United States for the purpose of aiding the rebellion.

Under the thirteenth exception are included all who, during the rebellion, have held any office or agency under the State of pretended Confederate Government; or have in any way voluntarily joined in the rebellion, as for example, by entering or marching with armed forces hostile to the United States; by sending or furnishing money, provisions, or arms, to persons engaged in the rebellion, save in cases where money or provisions were furnished from the promptings of charity or humanity; by acting with assemblages of persons, whether organized or unorganized, hostile to the United States; or in any other way giving voluntary aid, assistance or encouragement to the rebellion; and whose taxable property on the 29th day of May, 1865, exceeded in value the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

The other exceptions are so plain as not to require explanation.

No certificate will be granted by the Justices to any person who is included within any of the fourteen excluded classes, unless on exhibition by the party of his pardon for his offence from the President.

The Justices appointed to administer the amnesty oath, and to furnish certificates of the same which shall be evidence of loyalty, are especially instructed to be vigilant and faithful.—While it will not be their duty to attempt to pry into the hearts and consciences of men, they will nevertheless admonish those who may apply to take the oath, that it must be taken and subscribed in good faith, with an honest intention on their part to keep it without secret purpose or mental reservation upon any occasion or at any time to commit any act in violation of said oath; and they will warn them that if the oath is not thus taken and kept, the pardon offered them by the President will be void, and they will remain subject to trial under the law for perjury and treason.

The Justices, Clerks and Sheriffs, whose duty it is to provide for administering the oath and to conduct the elections, are enjoined to use every practicable means to enable every citizen to take the oath who may desire and be entitled to do so. And the Inspectors are enjoined to inspect and examine fairly and truly to decide in every case in accordance with the law, and with the instructions they have received from this office, and to make prompt and correct returns of the number of votes and for whom cast, at their respective precincts.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 8th day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865

The Great Invention of the Age in

HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT. This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all single steel hoop skirts. The three bottom rods on every skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant corded tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable comfortable and economical skirt ever made.
